

DONOR FORM

The mission of the Temple Emanuel Oral History Project is to document and collect the history of the members of the Temple Emanuel congregation in Greensboro, North Carolina. The major part of this effort is the collection of oral history interviews with knowledgeable individuals. This project is a collaborative effort between The Temple Emanuel congregation and graduate students within the Public History Program at The University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

AGREEMENT

I, Peggy Tager narrator, donate and convey my oral history interview dated 2-3-22 to the Temple Emanuel Archives. In making this gift I understand that I am conveying all rights, title, and interest in copyright to the repository. I also grant the repository the right to use my name and likeness in promotional material for outreach and educational materials. In return, the repository grants me a nonexclusive license to use my interview through my lifetime.

I further understand that I will have the opportunity to review and approve my interview before it is placed in the repository and made available to the public. Once I have approved it, the repository will make my interview available for research without restriction. Future uses may include quotation in printed materials or audio / video excerpts in any media, and availability on the internet.
